

Industrial Market Outlook

Challenges manufacturers will focus on now and in the future.

Covid-19

"Adjusting to the New Normal"

New safety measures and the adoption of automation and digitalization has and will continue to be a priority for manufacturers.

78%

of CEOs surveyed say their factory floors will have permanent design changes for employee health and safety.

Labor

"Finding Qualified Workers Hasn't Gotten Easier"

of companies surveyed by the National Association of Manufacturers say they are concerned about finding skilled technicians – a continuous trend in the industry.

55%

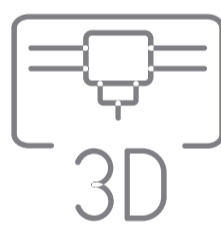

Industry 4.0

"Building the Factory of the Future"

Manufacturers have accelerated their digital transformation through the adoption of advanced technologies.

Remote Monitoring

3D Printing

Augmented Reality

Supply Chain

"Resilience is the New Mandate"

In a recent Manufacturing Leadership Council survey, manufacturers reported they plan to focus on supply chain resilience, including exploration of more local production and re-shoring.

Increase Focus on Supply Chain 60%

Local Production and Re-Shoring 43%

Diversity

"The Movement is Gaining Momentum"

Manufacturers will be more aggressive in efforts to expand diversity in their workforce.

Interested in learning more? Read the full blog here or visit www.advancedtech.com.

